

CHEREVICHKIOTVICHKI
FOR Yohji Yamamoto

October, 2022

For their Spring Summer 2023 Femme collaboration, Cherevichkiotvichki's Victoria Andrejeva has focused her design to be a silent complement to the Yohji Yamamoto's deconstructed baroque mood of the season.

Yohji Yamamoto uses light fabrics and origami-like elements to cast a bout of air and lightness upon his structured summer collection. The cut-out elements in the two footwear models speak directly to the slivers of white playfully appearing from under the skirts and jackets.

This season Andrejeva has chosen to manipulate her leather designs in a way of creating negative space and gently revealing parts of the skin. The classic derby is made of a single piece of leather completed with a reversed stitch line around the toe box; exposing the very delicate part of a woman's foot. Whereas the cut-out boot pattern is made to play an exaggerated asymmetric game with left and right feet being complete mirror opposites of each other. All made in the perpetual "Yamamoto" black.

The collaboration pieces will be exclusively available in the Yohji Yamamoto stores and selected boutiques worldwide in the early 2023.
